Railroads Reduce Freight Rates to Southeast

ROADS VOLUNTEER DROP IN CHARGES TO BOOST TRAFFIC

Joint Rates on All Commodities From Central Freight Association Territory.

SOME RATES LOWERED FIFTEEN PER CENT

Average Gain to Consignors and Consignees Will, However, Be About Ten Per Cent.

Washington, January 28.—Taking cognizance of a reduction in freight traffic from the middle west to the southeastern states, representatives of railroads handling such traffic have agreed voluntarily to put into effect joint rates from Central Freight Association territory on all commodities on which such rates do not now exist. The agreement, reached yesterday, was announced today by the National Industrial Traffic League.

The meeting was called by H. C. Barlow, chairman of the Central Freight Association. William Hodge, of Chicago, represented the lines of the northeast; A. R. Smith, of Louisville and Nashville railroad, the southeast, and M. M. Caskey, the shippers of the southeast.

The establishment of joint rates on commodities, it was stated, will result in the reduction of freight rates in some instances as much as ten per cent, but in the majority of cases the average will be about 10 per cent. Central Freight Association territory includes the area west of Buffalo and east of Chicago and north of the Potomac and Ohio rivers.

ILLEGAL PRACTICE CHARGE PREFERRED AGAINST PHYSICIAN

Charged with illegal practice in the case of a young married woman, Dr. E. P. Mison, of East Point, was arrested last night and at an early hour this morning was being held at police station. His bond was fixed at $5,000, which has not yet been arranged.

TARIFF CONGRESS MAY FAVOR PLAN TO BAN IMPORTS

Resolution Prohibiting Importation of "Goods, the Like of Which We Are Now Making or Can Make," Considered.

ATTACK ON FEDERAL RESERVE BANK FAILS

Resolution Condemning Reserve Board for Its Policy During Readjustment Period Is Finally Withdrawn.

Passage of a resolution whereby "no goods that are making or can make in this country shall be imported into the United States for the next ten years," is expected at this morning's session of the Southern Tariff Congress following its unanimous adoption by the resolutions committee yesterday afternoon.

The resolution was ordered prepared during the afternoon session by President John H. Kirby, and a special meeting of the committee was held following the regular session when the favorable action was taken. It will come up Saturday morning and leaders in the congress predict its passage by the entire body.

The introduction of the resolution followed an address by Congressman James T. McCreary, of Minnesota, who in an inspiring address urged a protective as well as a revenue tariff. He recalled the policy of England whereby imported products are penalized while home products are duty free in an effort to show that from an economic viewpoint protection of home industries is essential. He also recalled the rise of the German empire through the genius of Bismarck, who, he said, instituted economic reforms whereby both producer of raw materials and manufacturer alike were given protection by the government, under which system Germany reached a state of economic supremacy that enabled them to withstand the pressure of world conditions longer than any other nation could have held out under similar conditions.

Friday's sessions of the congress found the delegates getting down to business. A warm discussion emanating from a resolution condemning the federal reserve board for its policy during the recent readjustment finally resulted in the recall of the resolution after Frank T. Kell, of Wichita Falls, Texas, and Marlon Sanson, of Dallas, both members of the Directorate of the Dallas Federal Reserve bank, had attacked the resolution as foreign to the question of tariffs. Frank L. Armstrong, chairman of the resolutions committee, introduced the resolution and withdrew it with the understanding that this action was not to be used as a precedent publicly by friends of the system.

The address of Mrs. Charles A. Farwell, chairman of the women's division of the congress, was a feature of the afternoon session. Mrs. Farwell, in a review of the work performed by the women's division, urged the male delegates to inform their wives of the problems involved in order that more interest might be aroused in its behalf and a better understanding of economic problems be gained by the new voters.

The problem, she stated, was one of vital interest to every family and to every school and pledged the work of her division to that end. The association now has 100 members in New Orleans, she stated, and it is her intention to increase this number to 500 before applying for a charter.

Mrs. Bradstreet Behind Bars Again At Police Station

Attack on Husband Charged to Woman of Fairburn Bank Case.

Mrs. Catherine Queen Bradstreet, who figured in the Fairburn bank embezzlement case, for which William B. Green, vice president, is now serving sentence in the penitentiary, was arrested at 11 o'clock Friday night in front of the Candler building on Peachtree street, on the charge of attacking her husband, Clarence F. Bradstreet, and advancing on officers with a hatpin in a militant manner.

Mrs. Bradstreet was charged with being drunk and disorderly, and was locked up in the matron's ward at police station. Her bond was fixed at $100. A disorderly conduct charge was made against the husband, and he was released on copy of charges.

W. T. Morris, secretary to Police Chief James L. Beavers, noticed the difficulty between the woman and her husband as he was walking down Peachtree street from the Grand theater. He approached in the role of peace-maker, but retreated and awaited reinforcements when she drew a hatpin and started in his direction. Patrolmen Johnson and Cartwright showed up about that time and the three officers finally persuaded her to come to headquarters.

Mrs. Bradstreet was arrested when it was shown that Green had purchased many fine clothes and automobiles for her. She was indicted jointly with Green, but was acquitted when tried some months after Green's conviction.

The cases against Mrs. Bradstreet and her husband are set for hearing at 2:30 o'clock before Recorder Johnson this afternoon.

TRY TO CONNECT POSTAL ROBBERIES

Woman Who Testified in Lynchburg, Va., Trial May Be Brought to Atlanta Soon.

Linking of the gang of alleged postoffice robbers now being tried in Lynchburg, Va., for robberies in that section with the rifling of post offices in the vicinity of Atlanta is expected by the government inspectors who Friday learned that there is a strong probability that the outfit once had its headquarters in the Virginia city Thursday, an investigation of No. 5 Carnegie Way, where a woman who gave her name as Mrs. Charles B. Wilson testified the headquarters were located, disclosed the whereabouts of the gang on a copy above the door to No. 5, which is the Carnegie Way entrance to the Arlington hotel. W. M. Tyson, a clerk at the hotel, said that he had a vague recollection of the woman and others being at the hotel in October.

An investigation will be made of the operations here and Virginia, in an effort to connect the convicted men with the score of robberies in Atlanta's vicinity within the last year, according to postoffice officials. One of whom returned from Virginia Friday, stating that there was a strong probability of the connection.

One of the crackmen, killed in a gun fight with the authorities near Roanoke, was wearing a hat bearing the name of an Atlanta haberdasher at the time of his death, according to the inspector. Mrs. Wilson, who intimated in her testimony that Atlanta had been a center of the gang's activity, turned state's evidence in the trial of C. B. Gordon, alias C. B. Gibbons, who was sentenced to serve sixteen years for his connection with the robbery of the postoffice at Halifax, Va. William Potter and Charles Wilkes, of the same outfit, were sentenced to fifteen and twelve years respectively, for the technical offense of having burglar tools in their possession.

Mr. Tyson, the clerk at the Arlington, said that his memory of Mrs. Wilson was that of a very attractive woman, about 35 years of age. Mr. Tyson also expressed the belief that she had passed as the wife of J. D. Rogers, the man who was slain in the battle with the federal officers. Porter, said to be the leader of the gang, is well-known to the authorities as a professional yegman, being of about 40 years of age and known as "Belmonte Bill," the name derived from Bellefontaine, Ohio, the small town in which he was reared.

POISON WHISKY 'TIGERS' SOUGHT, AFTER MAN DIES

General Morris Succumbs to Effects of Liquor While Behind the Bars at Police Station.

FATHER TO ASK PROBE OF SON'S TREATMENT

Grady Hospital Officials Investigating to Learn Why Doctor Sent Dying Man to Station House.

Additional evidence that poisoned whisky is now being sold in Atlanta was given early this morning when a negro, whose name and address have not yet been learned, was found, lying on the street in front of 29 Stonewall street, in an unconscious condition. He was taken to Grady hospital, where physicians said that his symptoms were the same as those of General Morris, who died while a prisoner at police station. They stated their belief that he was the victim of alcoholic poisoning.

BY WALTER CHAMBERS. Out in DeKalb county, just off the Briarcliff road, last night the grim-lipped father, a heart-broken mother, and a sobbing young brother and sister of General Morris, the 21-year-old victim of poisoned liquor, who was found dead yesterday in police station, after he had been sent there from Grady hospital labelled as "plain drunk," kept a lonely vigil.

"My boy was sick and they didn't treat him right," the father remarked bitterly. "He was found dead yesterday in police station, after he had been sent there from Grady hospital labelled as 'plain drunk,' kept a lonely vigil."

"Isn't there something you can do? The Constitution can do about the way they treated him!" he pleaded pitifully. "An hour would have been niter heart which could have failed to answer you."

"I'm going to the inquest this morning (for it was past midnight) and ask Paul Donohoe to help me. Mr. Wilson, the man he worked for, is going down of the green log first, out this afternoon and told us about it."

Up the hill from the little log cabin is the school house where General went to school. It is the typical country school and from its portals shadows of the green log first, another knoll stands the little brown church where General had gone to Sunday school every Sunday since he was old enough to toddle at his mother's knees. For he was a good boy. Drinking is a habit with him, both father and mother stated vehemently last night.

He was the oldest of the three children. Estelle, a seventeen-year-old sister and William, the 10-year-old brother, of the family cowered in the shadows of the green log first. The empty chair denoted the place where Big Brother sat every night and told them of what he had seen on the Big Road that day. Never again will they hear him speak nor see the light of laughter in his eyes for tomorrow afternoon, at the Sunday school hour, they will gather with his friends at the little brown church on the brow of the hill and lay him to everlasting sleep.

Believing they have definite clues pointing to the identity of the whisky runners, who Friday morning gave General Morris poisoned whisky to drink in pay for his services in helping repair their broken down machine near Decatur, Atlanta police and DeKalb county officials Friday night were employed to press the fight for success of the $8,500,000 bond issue at the polls on March 8.

Should a Woman Earning $12,000 Give Hubby Pay?

This Is the Legal Question Arising in Dilemma of Mrs. Cobb.

BY JAMES L. KILGALLAN, United News Staff Correspondent. Chicago, January 28.—Will the gentleman who speaks a pipe and runs the "advice to the lovers" column please answer this question: "Should a business girl, earning $12,000 a year, turn her pay over to her husband?"

We pass the query on because the girl who makes the $12,000—Mrs. Helen French Cobb, of Chicago—refused to answer it Friday night. Mrs. Cobb, a tall, slender and elegantly dressed young woman of refined manners, was a visitor at the offices of a noted Chicago criminal lawyer who was putting the finishing touches on her decree of divorce granted by Judge Sabath in superior court from her husband, Norvell Cobb, manager of a brokerage branch of the American Surety company, in New York.

The question asked the loveless editor is vital because that's what brought Mrs. Cobb into the divorce court.

Mrs. Cobb's Story. She put it this way to the judge: "Mr. Cobb told me repeatedly that if I turned over to him the money I was making as buyer for a department store I could have the privilege of living with him. He demanded I give him $200 a month and a bonus of $1,000 at the end of each year."

Mrs. Cobb smilingly declined to give advice to other business girls when asked for her ideas on business and matrimony. No, thanks, she'd leave that to the loveless editor. But, goodness knows, she's had her troubles as a married business girl, according to what she told the judge. She said she and Mr. Cobb were married in New York nine months ago and were separated for the first time three months later.

"He married me because he thought we could get together and save money," she said. "He never gave me anything. I used to buy."

BOND COMMITTEE TO NAME LEADERS

Names of Number of Prominent Atlantans Considered for Post at Meeting Friday.

At the end of a session Friday of the special subcommittee of the bond committee of eight appointed to choose a chairman and an associate chairman for leadership in the forthcoming bond campaign, it was announced by W. W. Gaines, chairman, that the names of a number of prominent Atlantans were mentioned and discussed and a definite selection will probably be made today.

In addition to Mr. Gaines, who is president of the board of education, the subcommittee is composed of Councilman C. E. Buchanan, Mrs. John Spaulding, president of the Atlanta Parent-Teachers' council; W. C. Carraway, president of the Federation of Trades, and Mrs. Albert Thornton, Sr., president of the Federation of Women's clubs.

Two chairmen will direct the campaign. A man will be named as general chairman and the post of associate chairman will be given to a woman. Efforts of the men workers will be crystallized principally under the general chairman, and the duties of the associate chairman will be employed mainly toward assisting the women to marshal and develop the full strength of their forces.

Selection of these two leaders will be the last step preceding active and intensive organization to press the fight for success of the $8,500,000 bond issue at the polls on March 8.

WILLIAMS ADMITS PART IN HOLDUP OF BANK CASHIER

In Presence of Brother and Attorneys, He Tells of Daring Robbery Wednesday at Suwanee.

DISCLOSES IDENTITY OF HIS COMPANIONS

Mark Hagood and Thomas J. James, Implicated by Confession, Are Both at Liberty.

Lawrenceville, Ga., January 28.—(Special.)—Played and beaten by his conscience and urged by his brother to "tell all he knew," Carroll Williams, arrested Thursday at his home near Alpharetta for alleged complicity in the daylight robbery of the Bank of Suwanee Wednesday afternoon, late this evening confessed to the crime.

He implicated Mark Hagood and Thomas J. James, declaring them to be the other two men who entered the bank with him, bound Cashier Dows to a chair and then looted the cashier's drawer of all the currency it contained, something over $2,500. Five hours later $1,800 of the stolen money was recovered from the auto used by the bandits in fleeing from Suwanee.

The confession was made in the presence of Williams' attorney, I. L. Oak, Sheriff E. S. Garner and his brother, W. N. Williams, of Alpharetta.

Just before the Bank of Suwanee closed its doors Wednesday three men entered the establishment, asked for a note and immediately repaired to a counter where they pretended to fill it out. There was a customer in the bank at the time and the request for a note was simply a play for time.

Hardly had the customer gotten out of the door of the bank than the three men approached the cashier's window and, under the pretense of presenting the note, leveled three guns at Cashier Dows with the demand of "hands up." One of the three, then, behind the counter, tied Dows to a chair and made off with all the money in sight.

There was an auto in waiting and the three men drove leisurely through and out of town. Twenty minutes later Cashier Dows freed himself and gave the alarm. Several possees were quickly organized, two taking the trail of the fleeing men, which was easily followed through the snow.

EXPERTS DEVISE MEANS TO SOLVE KNOTTY PROBLEM

With Threatened Rift in Lute Obviated, Supreme Council Will Indorse Agreement Today.

PAYMENTS CONTINUE FOR FORTY-TWO YEARS

Sliding Scale, With Ad Valorem Tax on Exports, Allows Payment in Ratio With Prosperity.

Paris, January 28.—The session of the committee of experts of the allied supreme council ended at 12:30 o'clock this morning, after having reached a complete agreement on the system of annual payments of reparations by Germany and annuities on Germany's foreign trade. It now remains only for the plenary sitting of the supreme council today (Saturday) to indorse the agreement, draw up instructions for the Brussels experts and fix penalties for defaults by Germany.

Frederic Brind, declared as he came from the meeting early this morning that the conference of the supreme council would not break up without having reached a definite decision.

Plan Outlined. The proposed scheme provides for the payment of annuities on a sliding scale of from 2,000,000,000 to 3,000,000,000 gold marks over a period of probably forty-two years, and also a 1 1/2 per cent ad valorem tax on German exports so that her creditors would be paid according to Germany's increasing prosperity.

The sudden ironing out of differences came after two days of a continually widening breach that threatened to break up the conference, it being virtually suspended except for private conferences. Official French circles say the Belgian delegation credit for the success in reconciling the British and French viewpoints.

To Invite Germans. The project in its final form, when approved by the supreme council, will be submitted to Germany for acceptance as an agreement outside of Article 233 of the peace treaty which entrusts the reparations commission with the task of fixing the amount of the indemnity. Then another conference will be called to which the Germans will be invited.

The committee of experts was in session last night considering the question of shortening the period of payments to 30 years, for which the treaty of Versailles specifically provides. But it is expected that the period of 42 years finally will be adopted, as the whole agreement is outside the treaty and the long period of payments will make the task easier for Germany.

Conferences between small groups of the delegates went on this afternoon in an effort to clear up the tangle in the situation which had arisen.

And, another thing: Mrs. Cobb couldn't be a successful business woman, 100 per cent efficient, and at the same time know everything about housework.

"Mr. Cobb wouldn't provide a maid," she said, touching on this phase of her domestic unhappiness. "Consequently, I had to do the cooking and housework. I had always been used to a maid."
"Once when I was preparing a dinner I burned myself. He told me if I did more of that kind of work I wouldn't burn myself. That was on the 29th day of September—and we separated the very next day."

Mrs. Cobb also told of incidents occurring when they were living at the Plaza and Ritz-Carlton hotels in New York city. She said he quarreled over her way of driving an

"That's rather personal, don't you think?"
"Did you ask for alimony?"
"I did not."

SWEET ROSE BISCUITS

The Glory of the Housewife

Do you serve Sweet Rose Biscuits to your family—biscuits fresh from the oven, crispy-brown, dainty—biscuits that fairly melt in your mouth?

If you do, you understand the irresistible call to be on time for every one in the family when the biscuits are made of

Sweet Rose Flour

Manufactured by Bernet, Craft & Kauffman Milling Co. St. Louis, U. S. A.
First Premium, Alabama State Fair, 1919

It is the supreme flour for all sorts of baking—cakes, pies, biscuits, waffles or pastry. You simply add shortening and milk (or water) to the creamy white flour, and the dough is ready—and even you, no matter how long your baking experience, will be surprised at the results you get.

Forty-seven years of selecting wheat and milling flour are back of every sack of Sweet Rose, insuring accurate proportions of the finest flour, the highest grade of baking powder and the purest salt thoroughly mixed together, eliminating the uncertain results so often the despair of the most careful housewife.

A Guarantee that makes it worth while to order Sweet Rose

Tell your Grocer you want a sack of Sweet Rose Flour today, and if the things you make do not surpass any you have made before, your Grocer will take it back and refund your money.

WILLIAMS ADMITS PART IN HOLDUP

James and Haygood walked over to the desk in the lobby of the bank and began talking. "As soon as the customer walked out James covered Cashier Davis with a pistol and told him 'hands up,' Haygood had a pistol and told me to go on in the inside. I walked inside the cashier's office and captured the cashier's pistol, which was under the cashier's window. This I put in my pocket. I then went to the vault and took out around $1,900, which I was ordered to do by Mark Haygood."

The so-called Cooper "blue law" had heretofore been defeated. J. P. Gath, of the B. L. Bodeker Agency, are working on the case and think they will apprehend the other two robbers in a short time.

The bank is still short about $700 which has not been recovered. Williams claims he only took about $1,900 and says he knows nothing about the other money. He also says James and Haygood tied the cashier while he was going through the vault.

Hagood's Father Is Milton Leader.

Alpharetta, Ga., January 28.—(Special.)—When the news reached Alpharetta early yesterday morning of the holdup robbery of the bank at Suwanee it created no more interest here than the average news of the day. But a few hours later, when officers and constables here began merging in and near Alpharetta, from following trails of the robbers, the interest here began to grow.

Carroll Williams, 22 years old, who has a wife and child, was arrested at his home about four miles north of Alpharetta and carried to Suwanee county jail. He was identified by the cashier of the bank, who was also arrested at the same time, and carried to Suwanee county jail. Williams admitted that the bank robbery was his idea, but said he was under duress. The officers are out after Steve's brother, Tom, who is also a suspect in the robbery. Tom is a young man who drove the car, but have not been able to capture him.

He advised his immediate removal to hospital. Captain of Police W. F. Terry, who was on duty at the time Morris reached police headquarters, took the position that the responsibility was with the doctor at the hospital who ordered the man placed in police station. Chief Beavers seemed of the same opinion, but an investigation as to the possibility of some inattention at police station will be thoroughly gone into by the officials.

Expect to Make Arrest.

DeKalb county authorities have several clues as to the identity of the whisky peddler who is alleged to have given the poisonous drink to young Morris, and they confidently expect to make an arrest within a very short period.

Deputy Dunn found Morris unconscious near Decatur, lying in the roadway. The officer had returned to investigate the broken down car which was said to have contained whisky. The alleged bootleggers had made their escape with their contraband goods by transferring it into another machine.

Morris was rushed to Decatur by Mr. Dunn, where a superficial examination by a physician revealed the fact that his condition was dangerous. Upon the advice of the physician the officer brought the young man hurriedly to the Grady hospital for treatment.

After the use of the stomach pump and other remedies at the hospital, the physicians are said to have decided that it was a plain case of intoxication, and summoned the police. Upon this diagnosis by the doctors, young Morris was carried to the police station and placed in a cell, and his death was unknown until Deputy Sheriff Dunn called to inquire concerning his condition.

When Morris reached the station lieutenant's desk he was unconscious. The lieutenant is said to have directed that a special watch be kept over the prisoner.

A coroner's inquest will be held over the body at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the chapel of Donohoe & Bismore, where the body was carried. The doctors at the Grady hospital and the physician who made the examination at Decatur, together with the officer who found the man in a cell, are expected to appear before the coroner's jury.

Morris is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Morris, and several small brothers and sisters.

YSAYE AND BAND PLEASE AUDIENCE AT NIGHT CONCERT

The Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, in what has come to its annual concert in Atlanta, assembled an audience at the Auditorium last night which was adequate in size and appreciation to the musical character of the evening—an occasion when some of the best of symphony music was presented by Eugene Ysaye and his band in a manner which has given them outstanding position among the great orchestras of the country.

The Fifth Symphony of Tchaikowsky, which is considered to be surpassed among his works by none but the Pathétique, was the feature of the program, both from the standpoint of musical importance and the performance it was given. A work typical of modern symphony construction, and especially of Tchaikowsky's ingenious handling of musical means and of the great luxuriance of his orchestration, the performance had under the baton of Ysaye was a clear and satisfying revelation. The symphony is not as much saturated with pessimism as some of the great Russian's works, but the dominant theme, which is melancholy, was shown in effectively somber contrast with the more cheerful phases of the work.

The lovely andante was given its full mood of romanticism in interpretation, the performance of which weighed down even the waits that would be cheerful is the tenor, too, of which the orchestra made a memorably brilliant finale.

It was good to hear the old-fashioned, slow, majestic, and obvious enough for everybody's enjoyment. The "Suite Aisienne" showed Bisset in his suave style and gave orchestra and audience a breathing spell between the intense concentration of the symphony. The Lohengrin prelude was given the most enthusiastic welcome probably more because of the long lapse since it was last heard here, for it did not match up in smooth beauty of production to some of the rest of the program.

In the Leonore overture No. 3 of Beethoven, the vigor of the production proved Ysaye no less fresh in enthusiasm than in the opening Weber work, and he made it one of the most dramatic episodes of the evening. He has a splendid organization, and he gave of his best.

WHITLEY NOT RELATED TO MAN BOARD FIRED

City Detective J. Lewis Whitley has asked The Constitution to make it clear to the public that he is not related to Policeman L. W. Whitley, who was dismissed from the force by the board of police commissioners at the meeting last Tuesday night on the charge of taking a gun from police station and disposing of it in a local pawnshop. This Whitley was from Walton county. Detective J. Lewis Whitley has been on the police force for twelve years, being elected October 12, 1909. He was assigned to detective duty about eight years ago, and has never had charges of any kind preferred against him. He is 48 years old, and resides at 45 Orleans street.

FIRST GROTO DANCE UNDER NEW MONARCH

William Ramesses McDuffie, the new monarch of Ararat Grotto, and the new officers of the local Grotto, were hosts to the propheets of Ararat Grotto and their ladies at a complimentary dance at the Grotto headquarters in the Forsyth building last night. The dance was well attended, and the spirit of good fellowship was a matter of evidence. One of the splendid features of the Grotto is the social element, and the start of the new administration gives evidence of the splendid co-operation which the new monarch may expect.

FORMER ATLANTA BOY IN CITY ON BUSINESS

J. E. Baker, of the firm of Blodgett & Co., New York and Boston bankers, a former Atlanta boy, who will be remembered by many of his schoolmates, is at the Georgian Terrace for a few days, business of his concern, with some of the principal concerns of Atlanta, calling him to this city. On completing his work here he will go to Charleston, S. C., and from there back to New York. During the war he was connected with the engineering department, and has been closely associated with Herbert Hoover in the relief work in Europe.

ALEX PEARL IS HELD ON BURGLARY CHARGE

Alex Pearl, aged 21, of 663 Washington street, was held under a $2,000 bond by Recorder Johnson Friday afternoon under charges of burglary. He was arrested by City Detective Hamilton and held in the police station on the charge of robbing the store of the Walter Hallard Optical company's store on Whitehall street. According to the officers, a large quantity of the goods stolen from this establishment was recovered.

Groceries and Meats

A GOOD STORE IS AS ESSENTIAL TO THE GOOD OF A CITY AS churches, good schools, good hotels and good streets. A GOOD STORE is one which renders a continuous service to the public. Service is more than handing merchandise across the counter at a cheap price. A GOOD STORE has a character the same as an individual, and character varies as much in stores as individuals. Haven't you noticed that in every city a certain store achieves a character for having the kind of merchandise you want, whenever you want it? It does business because it has the confidence of the public by deserving it. Every courtesy at all times is due customers. Our customers must feel safe with us, otherwise there can be no growth.

Our prices are declining daily, even faster than present wholesale prices will permit. However, we have decided to take our loss and thus be able to take advantage of the future market prices. Why wear yourself out to carry your merchandise, when we are prepared to render you this service? Call us up today and avail yourself of our service. Below we give you a few of our prices, namely:

TIGERS SOUGHT AFTER MAN DIES

ing every agency within their power to bring about their immediate apprehension.

Morris succumbed to his poisoning behind the bars at police station, where he had been sent by physicians at the Grady hospital under charges of being drunk. His death was discovered about 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, when Deputy Sheriff G. L. Dunn, of DeKalb county, called to learn how he was getting along.

Hospital Probe Starts.

A thorough investigation in the condition of Morris when he reached the Grady hospital and when he was ordered removed from the institution to police headquarters is being made by Superintendent Steve R. Johnston and House Surgeon Dr. Folsom, and this information will be given the coroner's jury when the inquest is held this morning.

Dr. Wiley S. Ansley, who made the superficial examination of Morris in his drug store at Decatur, stated to a Constitution reporter over the phone Friday night that it was apparent the man was suffering from alcoholic poison and that was why

Her Wedding.

Gown.

Ole Winter Say:

"Whist! I in de town."

I'll buy Miss Spring a wedding gown."

Miss Spring, she said:

On de shelf, she say she'll Ter suit herself!

Den she picked her out:

A gown o' green, and she trimmed it fine As you ever seen.

Wild roses red, An' a Rainbow give her De ribbons, too!

An' she tole ole Winter: "On my wedding day, I want a husband!"

I want a head so gray!"

This Ought to Settle It!

Somebody's wanting to know whether "neither" or "neither" is the correct way to pronounce "neither."

Over in Lavinia they just say "neither" and go about their business.—Hartwell Sun.

A subscriber wants to know why it is Hartwell people say "youall" when they mean "you, or all of you."

We replied that Hartwell people don't say "youall," they say "y'all."—Lavinia Times.

Keep Up the Pace!

De Sun, he tells you How ter keep up de fire: "It's plin' on de wood Makes de blaze leap higher!"

"Don't blow de ashes All roun' de place; Keepin' up de wood Makes you see de fire's face!"

Consolation in Company.

The fact that things "go contrary" now and then, reminds Editor Shannon, of The Commerce News, of an experience that an aged man gave in during a protracted meeting, when he said: "Bruthin, sometimes I'm up and sometimes I'm down; sometimes I'm on the mountain top and some times I'm in the valley; sometimes I'm on my way to heaven, and some times on my way to hell, but thank God I'm not by myself!"

A Billville Opinion.

Et Jonah lived in this time He'd tell another tale, He'd serve de whole And advertise: "First-class bill for sale!"

Talks Out in Meats.

"The best way to find out how cheap things are," says The Thomsville Times-Enterprise, "is to read the ads and not the summaries and conjectures of a lot of half-baked publicity seekers."

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

CONDUCTORS, ATTENTION!

Fellow conductors:

We have, with us today a mere passenger who wishes to give a little health talk.

Letting him tell you a few things, I'm sure you will find it interesting.

My dear Mr. Brady: Some time ago I read with interest your article on "Big Little Things," in which you referred to the hotel guest in Maine who left because of flies in the dining room and later on, after a long stay, he was brought to collect the hotel bill.

You also mentioned the case of the patron of a ticket window who objected to handling a salvia smeared pencil, which the clerk received from his mouth to hand to patrons.

It is necessary to go to Maine or even to a ticket window in order to encounter such things.

Get on a street car, ask for a transfer, and it is an even game you will receive a salvia smeared pencil on your transfer from the non-tooth young man or finger of the conductor.

Don't object, though, I'm telling you. If you do, you will be very thoroughly "bawled out." "I've got me—this transfer or none for you!"

The street car company keeps a sign in the car, perhaps under the seat, which reads: "DO NOT SPIT ON THE FLOOR."

I suggest a change or an additional sign: "DO NOT SPIT ON THE TRANSFER."

A similar sign might be hung over the head of the baggage program boy who follows the conductor's practice with each program before handing it to the theater patron.

A neat little card printed with the same legend might be handed by the conductor to the passenger who carry their baggage in their mouth.

There is something more than a mere esthetic objection to this practice of indiscriminate spitting. There is actual danger involved in a quick exchange of saliva, the common danger of the conductor in kissing. Tuberculosis, diphtheria, syphilis and various respiratory infections vulgarly called "colds" may be directly spread by spitting on an object, such as a transfer, which is conveyed to the recipient's mouth, or which may convey the infective saliva first to the recipient's fingers and thence thoughtlessly to his mouth. The danger is just as real as the danger of a transfer of such diseases in kissing. It is no theory, mind you, that such a serious disease as syphilis may be transferred in an innocent or even a playful kiss. In Philadelphia, a few years ago, a whole lot of girls were so infected by the kiss of a presumably clean, respectable young man at a party where some kissing game was played. To receive from a conductor or a program boy or anyone else a salvia smeared pencil is almost, and in many cases, quite as serious a danger as the danger of kissing the fellow on the mouth.

CLEAR AND WARM WEATHER WILL BE GIVEN TO ATLANTA

Clear and warm, a reversion to spring, is what C. F. von Herrmann, government meteorologist, says Atlanta to expect for Saturday and Sunday in the weather line, and having had a taste of the fine weather January can offer it's a relief to the city in preparation to look forward to it.

The whole country seems to be in the grip of a cold, and the little blue over Wednesday, says Mr. von Herrmann, and the forecast for the week is not very encouraging.

CIVITANS APPLAUD
BOND ISSUE TALK

Members Are Urged to Register, Vote and Work for Bonds by St. Elmo Massengale.

In an address before the Civitan club Friday at noon, St. Elmo Massengale, prominent advertising man, urged all members of the organization to register and work for the proposed bond issue of $1,500,000.

Mr. Massengale said that the Civitan club is a body of five minutes' duration upon the subject of advertising, the others being Dave W. Webb, president of the Atlanta Ad club; Frank Lowenstein, vice president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World; and Charles Hohenstein, secretary of the Atlanta Advertising club.

Mr. Massengale spoke on the mission of advertising, after urging all voters to register for the coming bond election, gave many interesting facts regarding the art of advertising. Eighty-four per cent of the failures in business during the past year, declared Mr. Massengale, had been among non-advertisers.

Webb speaks. Dave W. Webb, president of the Atlanta Ad club, and one of the most popular men in Atlanta, received a round of applause when he arose to speak upon what the ad club means to Atlanta. Mr. Webb said that modern advertising stands for truth in publicity, and for the exclusion of fraudulent advertising. Frank Lowenstein spoke on the purpose of advertising clubs, and his address was filled with interest. He said that advertising today had been reduced to a science, and that the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, which will meet here in June, with 5,000 delegates from all parts of the world, represents a membership of 30,000 trained men in all parts of the globe.

Charles Hohenstein spoke on what the coming of the big world convention of ad clubs will mean to Atlanta. It was one of the most delightful meetings the Civitan club has yet held, the entertainment feature being enhanced by the presence of Miss Margaret Zender, who sang "Love's Olden Song," and "City of My Dreams." Joe Smith, a Macon boy, told a number of new stories, and the meeting closed with "The Argentine and the Greek." The entertainers came from the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and the company playing George M. Cohan's "Mary" and they were accompanied by the band of the Atlanta Municipal band.

MRS. FRANK LEVER
FINDS MALE ATTIRE
IN PLACE OF OWN

Another case of a mistake in handbags came to light late yesterday when Mrs. Frank Lever, wife of the former South Carolina congressman, arrived at the residence of friends in Atlanta. She found an outfit of male attire where she expected to find her own clothing plus jewelry valued at several thousand dollars.

CIVIC LEADERS
INDORSE WORK OF HUMANE BODY

The campaign of the Atlanta Humane society to raise $10,000 for the relief of suffering and for prevention of cruelty in Atlanta, both among unfortunate people and dumb animals, has been endorsed by Governor Hugh M. Dorsey, J. G. Hastings, vice president of the Georgia association, and Mrs. E. F. McBurney.

In a letter to William J. Rindland, executive secretary of the Humane society, Governor Dorsey said: "I hope to see the society put on its feet financially, and I hope the people of Georgia will subscribe to this worthy cause."

In an interview, he spoke of the need of such an association to protect the unfortunate—the street waif, the sick and penniless, the old and infirm, and the dumb creatures.

"Such work," continued Governor Dorsey, "deserves the support of everyone. No one can doubt the need of such work, and I hope to see suffering and to prevent cruelty."

J. G. Hastings said of the work of mercy accomplished and planned by the society: "Such efforts are not simply a desirable end. We need a must have—some agency working to suppress cruelty and relieve suffering."

Mrs. E. F. McBurney, expressing the sentiments of the women of Atlanta, said: "The Atlanta Humane society is not simply a desirable end, but an essential one. We simply can't get along without it."

Mr. Massengale spoke on the mission of advertising, after urging all voters to register for the coming bond election, gave many interesting facts regarding the art of advertising.

LAWYERS GIVE PRAISE TO JUDGE HAMMOND

The Atlanta Bar association Friday extended a vote of thanks to Judge Henry C. Hammond, of Augusta, who presided in the criminal division of the superior court, for the manner in which he conducted the court during the week. Before Judge Hammond retired from the bench, Attorney Harvey Hill told him that Atlanta judges wanted to give him a life term on the Atlanta bench should there arise vacancy.

PORT FACILITIES
NEEDED BY SOUTH

Theodore Steinway Says That Dixie Is Missing Golden Opportunity to Get Trade.

The south is overlooking its golden opportunity in not making every effort to improve its port facilities and grow the immense trade that has opened up since the war with Central and South America and Mexico, according to Theodore Steinway, head of the famous house that has manufactured Steinway pianos since 1855, and which has a world-wide trade.

Mr. Steinway spent Friday in Atlanta, concluding a trip of business inspection made through the southern territory. His home and factory are both in New York. It was his first visit to Atlanta.

Speaking of business conditions in general, Mr. Steinway declared "any one who attempts to sell the United States of America short is going to crash miserably. I have talked with business leaders throughout the country and during the past few weeks have paid special attention to southern conditions."

"I find everywhere a note of optimism—not that we are to have any tremendous storm of business activity as marked our entrance into the world war—but we are sure to have a steady and gradual return to normal times. In fact, we are already on the return road."

"We are going to have tangible evidence of this as soon as the new administration goes in. Big business men and our national financiers are anxiously awaiting Mr. Harding's cabinet selections. They are largely confident that the next president's course will be sane and conservative, but the actual naming of the cabinet and the president's first message will be a marvelous effect on rejuvenating business."

"The principal address will be delivered by Dean J. A. Lindsay, of Turner Theological seminary, of Rev. R. H. Holmes, president, will deliver the closing address, telling of the necessity of an education for the colored youth."

100 MILES OF ROAD
BUILT IN SEVENTH

Northwest Georgia Now Being Honeycombed With System of State Improved Highways.

Approximately 100 miles of highway of various types has either been constructed or is now under construction in the seventh congressional district of Georgia. Announcement to this effect was made today by the state highway department in a statement showing in some detail the record of progress made thus far in the perfection of the state highway system.

The summary of road construction in the district as announced by the state highway department is as follows:

Route 7 of the state highway system runs from Chattanooga to Tallahassee, traversing the western boundary of Georgia in a north and south direction. On this route the projects completed or under way are as follows:

In Walker county, 23 miles of chert road from Rock Springs to Trion, now under construction, estimated to cost $150,000.

In Floyd county, 1 1/2 miles of sand clay road on the Dixie highway, recently started, estimated to cost $23,500.

Work in Dade. In Dade county a three-mile stretch of road from the Tennessee state line to the end of the present macadam pike north of Trenton. This stretch of road will form Georgia's link in the projected Robert E. Lee highway from New York to San Francisco. The highway cuts across the extreme northwest corner of Georgia, and will be a rival of the great Lincoln highway.

In Chattooga county, near the Floyd county line a concrete bridge across Little Armuchee creek, with 1,000 feet of roadway approach to the same. This project is 50 per cent complete and will cost $23,700.

In Chattooga county, between Summerville and Menlo, 14 miles of Chert road under construction and 75 per cent completed, estimated to cost $99,000.

In Floyd county, from Big Armuchee creek to the city limits of Rome, seven and two-tenths miles of asphalt penetration road, of which nearly half has been completed. The entire project will be completed by March 1 at a cost of $101,400.

In Floyd county, from the city limits of Rome to the city limits of Lindale, two and three-fourths miles of asphalt penetration road, more than half completed.

In Floyd county, from the city limits of Lindale, in a southerly direction to the Floyd-Polk county line, a distance of seven miles, running toward Cedartown. This is a sand clay road, 50 per cent complete, being built at an estimated cost of $76,300.

Polk County Contract. In Polk county seven miles of road connecting Cedartown and Rome, the contract being recently awarded at an estimated cost of $42,400.

Route 2 of the state highway system extends from LaFayette in an easterly direction to Ellijay, and forms the western entrance to the great forest reservation mentioned above. This highway runs directly across country in a mountainous region. On this route are the following projects:

From the Whitfield-Murray county line in an easterly direction to Chattooga, six and seven-tenths miles of sand clay road, recently started at an estimated cost of $145,000. The existing road is practically impassable during bad weather.

In Murray county a concrete bridge and 1,000 feet of roadway approach over Rock creek, opposite the station of Rainsburg, about six miles south of Chattooga. The bridge will eliminate a very troublesome stream crossing.

Route 3 of the state highway system runs from Chattanooga to Thomasville, via Atlanta, Thomasville and Americus. It is one of the most important of all trunk highways in the state. On this route are the following projects in the seventh district:

Bridge over Swamp creek near southern boundary of Whitfield county.

In Bartow county one and one-half miles of roadway running northward from city limits of Cartersville, the main object of which is to eliminate a very dangerous grade crossing over the N. O. and St. L. railroad. The project is 50 per cent complete and will cost $125,000.

Route 5 of the state highway system runs from Cedartown to Atlanta, and on this route the highway department has under consideration ten miles of road in Paulding county from Dallas east to the Cobb county line. The project is 50 per cent complete and will cost $80,000.

Route 6 of the state highway system runs from the Georgia portion of the Bankhead highway, and on this route the department has under consideration ten miles of road in Paulding county from Dallas east to the Cobb county line. The project is 50 per cent complete and will cost $80,000.

Co-operation of the Atlanta Retail Merchants' association with the automobile men of Atlanta in making a success of the big automobile show to be held at the Auditorium the first week in March has been promised by the merchants.

A committee of the merchants, headed by J. F. Allen, has been appointed to supervise the details of this co-operative work, and it is understood that the advisability of holding a spring fashion show in connection with the auto show will be considered.

Oliver Optimistic
Over Conditions
In Cotton Industry

J. S. Oliver, an Atlantan long identified with some of the largest diversifying concerns of the country, and now a member of the firm of Oliver & Houghton, members of the exchange of New York, will be in Atlanta today on a tour of personal investigation of cotton conditions throughout the south.

Mr. Oliver has already been through the Carolinas and is expected to have a new and healthy activity in the cotton trade, conditions warranting an optimism that he had not expected at this time.

POTEAU RE-ELECTED
ASSOCIATION HEAD

Nashville, Tenn., January 23.—Dr. W. L. Poteau, president of Wake Forest college, was re-elected president of the Southern Baptist Education association today. Birmingham, Ala., was chosen as the place of the next meeting, January 25, 26 and 27. Dr. C. Cottingham, Pineville, La., was named vice president, and Dr. A. R. Bond, Birmingham, secretary-treasurer.

Rev. Thomas H. Johnston, dean of St. Philip's cathedral, was the principal speaker at the annual banquet of the directors of the Atlanta Young Women's Christian association, declaring that the manhood of the city would surely support a movement in such an uplifting movement.

Mrs. Archibald Davis, president of the Y. W. C. A., presided at the banquet, and Miss Irma E. Finley, general secretary, made her annual report to the directors. Miss Finley stated that more than 1,000 persons in health classes at the gymnasium. Fifteen hundred girls, she said, attended the camp of the Atlanta association at Highlands last summer.

Miss Genevieve K. Saunders, treasurer of the Atlanta association, also made her report, showing that all of the association's funds during 1920 were spent in behalf of Atlanta girls.

SHOP CRAFT WORKERS TO MEET HERE TODAY

Representatives of Third Division Gather in Labor Temple.

A regular convention of the Federated Shop crafts of the third division, representing all the railroad shop workers, consisting of about 300,000 men, will be held in Atlanta today. This is a regular meeting, and the sessions will be held in the Labor Temple.

The shop crafts federation for the southeastern division, gathering at this time, when more or less talk of wage reductions is being passed about, is looked upon as being of the utmost importance to the union men employed by the railroad shops.

The federation is made up of such crafts as the metal workers, blacksmiths, electrical workers, car painters, machinists, carpenters, boilermakers and their helpers.

It was also stated last night that there will be a meeting tonight of the Atlanta Federation of Railway Employees, which is made up of all crafts and unions in the railway service.

RETAIL MERCHANTS
PLEDGE SUPPORT OF AUTO SHOW

Co-operation of the Atlanta Retail Merchants' association with the automobile men of Atlanta in making a success of the big automobile show to be held at the Auditorium the first week in March has been promised by the merchants.

A committee of the merchants, headed by J. F. Allen, has been appointed to supervise the details of this

Hutsell and His Birmingham Quintet Invade Capital City For Game With A. A. C. Tonight

Joe Bean's Atlanta Athletic club basketball quintet will battle the Birmingham quintet at five at the Auditorium tonight. The game is scheduled to start promptly at 8:30. The Birmingham boys are keen rivals of the local quintet and had rather lose every game on their schedule than to drop this tray to the Bean boys, but hope on the game points to another victory for the local crew, in view of their recent victory over the Slagtown boys a few weeks back.

The Atlanta club, as the season progresses, continues to improve. They have easily won every game they have played and the defending their title as southern basketball champions like the top-notchers they are. The A. A. C. boys are holding hard workouts this week and have left no stone unturned to have the machine in the best possible condition for the conflict.

Captain Hutsell, of the Birmingham club, has probably been the most outstanding fault of the machine, which were evident in the recent game between the two teams, and when they take the floor

BIG MARGINS FEATURE DAY FOR PREPS

Tech High, Boys' High and University High were the winners in the prep games played yesterday afternoon, winning their games by wide margins and never seriously threatened.

Tech High defeated the Commercial High 44 to 8; Boys' High sent the Marxist Cadets to the showers under a 44 to 22 defeat; University High trounced the Fultonites 35 to 15.

Tech High started the game with a team that was made up of half scrubs and half varsity, and these lads had no trouble whatever in taking the Commercial High boys into camp. The quintet which played rings around the typhants, Sylvester and Clifton were the leaders. The local institutions' interests, was not empowered to agree to games unless the faculty authorized. The game was also brought out in the correspondence.

According to dates in Dr. Crenshaw's office, the game was arranged between the two colleges as early as December 1, when special trips were made by Tech men to South Bend, Ind., where the papers of the game were secured. Nearly two months have elapsed since that time, and we can find

Notre Dame's Excuse Is Weak Looks Like Case of "Cold Feet"

Nothing but the greatest piece of luck imaginable has saved Georgia Tech's 1921 football schedule at least that part of it relating to home dates—from a serious mishap. This fortune comes in the fact that the strong Rutgers football machine has been secured by the Tech athletic officials to fill the date left vacant by Notre Dame, which school has declined to fill its promise to meet Georgia Tech at home on October 22.

The announcement was made yesterday by Dr. J. B. Crenshaw, director of athletics at Georgia Tech, that Notre Dame was off Tech's schedule, giving no reason other than the team would be forced to make too many long trips during the season. Coach Rockne, who signed Notre Dame's portion of the contract, with Chip Robert looking after the local institutions' interests, was not empowered to agree to games unless the faculty authorized. The game was also brought out in the correspondence.

According to dates in Dr. Crenshaw's office, the game was arranged between the two colleges as early as December 1, when special trips were made by Tech men to South Bend, Ind., where the papers of the game were secured. Nearly two months have elapsed since that time, and we can find

MURPHY WILL BE TOUGH NUT FOR BAILEY

Frankie Murphy, matched with Bill Bailey for the Auditorium Monday night, is no third-rate. This young man is one of the best fighters in the light-heavyweight class, as his victories over Leo Hauck, George Chip, Johnny Howard and Eddie O'Hare and his two draw bouts with Harry Greb, will attest.

Murphy has been in Charleston, S. C., for a short time, and while in that city scored two easy victories against the best boys available in that city.

Walk Miller, who is acquainted with Murphy and also his manager, is authority for the statement that Murphy will prove to be almost as tough a nut as Bill Brennan, and he will vouch for Murphy's ability.

"What worries me," Walk said last night, "is that I fear Bailey may lose on points or fail to knock one of those knockout wallows Murphy possesses. This fellow must be good, for he defeated Toney, Chip, O'Hare and received two draws with Harry Greb. I consider Murphy the best in the middleweight division, not even excepting Johnny Wilson, the champion."

Frank 'Wildfire' Schulte, Famous Old Cub Slugger, To Become 1921 Cracker

Frank "Wildfire" Schulte, famous outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, winner of the Chalmers trophy in 1915 for the most valuable player in the National league, will wear a Cracker uniform next season.

The famous slugger, who held the modern home run record until the mighty Ruth appeared, was brought to the Cracker in a trade with the Syracuse club of the New York State league in exchange for Harry Damrai, second baseman of the 1920 Atlanta team.

Schulte played his first season as a minor leaguer last year, when he hit splendidly and fielded with all his old time effectiveness, but didn't care for the managerial game.

Cracker officials believe that he has many years of usefulness left to him working in the rejuvenating southern sun. Schulte is well known personally in Atlanta. For several years he spent his winters on a farm he had purchased near Washington, Ga. He still owns the land and it is expected that in the future he will make it his permanent home.

Frank was the last of the famous old Cub machine to leave Chicago, the last of the famous "Big Three," Brown, Rubeck, Overall, Fred Baker, Chance, Evers, Tinker and Steinmetz. He and the famous Hoffman drop out of big league activity, but he stuck on until last season.

Experts have declared that Schulte possesses the most perfect batting form ever exhibited by a batsman. It is the essence of ease and grace, but still carries tremendous power. It is expected that only a famous veteran will prove a great drawing card for the Crackers.

Tennessee Back to Normal Sunday Ball Law Is Beaten

Tennessee, the state that gave the nation woman suffrage, the state that broke the solid south, has at last returned to a condition of political normalcy. Efforts of blue-nosed and white-cornucopied farmers to force any blue and puritanical Sabbath down the throats of a people who once rivalled Kentucky in the quality of their mules, they produced have proved futile and unavailing.

Naturally the first effort for a blue Sunday in Tennessee was delivered at baseball, which up to a year ago was regarded as the cleanest of all American professional sports, and which in 1919 was introduced putting a ban on the playing of baseball on Sunday within the boundaries of the old Volunteer State.

It didn't pass. In fact it was overwhelmingly beaten and the people on the inside of politics evidently knew that the state was going to go on an amazingly fine evening. When the minor league magnates convened in Chicago early this month, and the question as to whether to adopt the question to do about Sunday baseball worried a number of the Dixie directors.

The perjurors who came from Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas and Louisiana. The directors representing the state were outwitted and weren't worried a bit.

"Go ahead and schedule all the Sunday games you want in Tennessee, and we'll play them," they assured the Georgia delegation, who were absolutely sure and satisfied that the state had returned to a condition of normalcy.

The schedule-makers did schedule Sunday games and the adoption of the Sunday law, despite the machinations of reformers, who draw large salaries for attending the other people's business and killing other people's joys.

TECH HOPING 3 BIG PREP FOR REVENGE BATTLES ON HITS EVENING CARD TODAY

Three corking good prep battles will be played in Atlanta this afternoon and night. This afternoon at 3:30 the University High boys will play the Columbus High quintet at the Y. M. C. A. Tech High and Boys' High will play two of the G. I. A. A. battles. The boys of Boys' High will meet the Georgia Tech quintet at the Y. M. C. A. on the second floor of the Auditorium, the encounter being scheduled to start at 7:30.

The night Tech High will compete with the Lanier High basketball team on the second floor of the Auditorium, the encounter starting at 8 o'clock.

Boys' High has dropped two of her A. A. games and is now going to give the Monroe Aggies a run for their money. The Purple and White warriors would be in the city Friday morning after trimming the Riverside Cadets by the close margin of 20 to 18. The Glimmerites will go into the game the favorites, although the Aggies are known to have a strong quintet.

Coach Dave let most of his varsity rest yesterday in the game with the Monroe Aggies, but he would be in the best condition.

The University High-Columbus game will be the second this season between the two schools. Several weeks back the Bluebirds journeyed down to Columbus and they were noosed out of victory by one point. However, the game ended in a tie and they had to play an extra five minutes to decide the fray. Since this game the University High team has been playing some fine basketball and they should come out on top by a good margin in tonight's encounter.

The Columbus boys have been meeting some stiff opposition and they are ready to give the Atlantans more than a run for their money.

The real prep battle of the day will bring together the rival quintets of Tech High and Lanier High, of Macon. This game will practically decide the G. I. A. A. basketball championship as neither team have been defeated by the other. The game will be played at the local Y. M. C. A. and the largest crowd of the season for a prep encounter is expected. Coach Tolbert sent his charges through a grueling workout Friday afternoon after the Commercial High game and from the point of view of a spectator they are in wonderful shape.

TIGERS AND EMORY CAGE GEORGIAN STEAMS READY PLAY TONIGHT FOR WHISTLE

With the Medical School pitted against the Lawyers, and the Theological quintet against the Emory College team, the third double-header in the series of the Emory league basketball games will be played at 7 o'clock, with the Lawyers and the Emory team.

With three practices during the week on the "Y" court, and five at the university on the campus court, the men in all teams have been whipped into shape, so it is safe to predict that there will be a better scrimmage than last Saturday's game, in which the Doctors so successfully laid the Freshers in the dust.

Among those seen practicing on the court at Emory were Beasley, who threw numerous goals in succession, and Pope, who was a central figure in practically all of the clusters around goals, when there was any shooting to be done. Watch for the Emory College team, which will make a strong and dependable guard, and will hold his place on the regular team without a doubt. Paabody will be in line for promotion to the first team in the future, and he will increase his accuracy in goal throwing. White may be on the floor to ring the hoops for the college. If he keeps up his present brand of playing, Jack Johnson shows himself up to advantage on the floor. Altogether, the practice has been more thorough this week, and augurs well for a couple of warm contests as the "Y" tonight.

Athens, Ga., January 23.—The next battle for the Red and Black five bids fair to be one of the hardest struggles of the year. The opponents for Saturday night are the Clemson Tigers, who have been playing a leading role in basketball circles for several years.

The Tigers have one of the most formidable fives in the Palmetto State, and they have won handsily over several of the representative quintets in the S. I. A. A. as well as some strong Y organizations.

The South Carolinians will arrive in the city Saturday morning, and they will invade the court Saturday night with a determination to win over the Bulldog. It will be remembered that the most crushing defeat that Clemson received during the football season was at the hands of the Bulldogs at the Butler street branch Y. M. C. A.

Shaw university is the champion of its section in basketball, having defeated Hampton institute, Morehouse is the champion of the south, and has been for four years. This game will be the first of a series to determine the championship of the country among colored schools. A great game is promised.

Maybe There's A Connecting Link.

Frank Griffith, who was football coach of the undefeated Boston college eleven, has been made professor of practical business methods at that same institution of erudition. Perchance his football experience will make him an ideal man for the post. And then again perhaps he was recommended by the athletic authorities at Yale.

OKLAHOMA DOG WINS NATIONAL TRIALS

Grand Junction, Tenn., January 23.—Farris Jake, a pointer, owned by C. E. Griffith, of York, Okla., is the winner of the national championship field trials, which closed here yesterday afternoon. Griffith's dog was announced made tonight by the judges. The new champion is a young dog, this being his first important victory. He was bought a year ago by C. E. Griffith, an Oklahoma oil man, for $1,500 and has been trained by Mack Pritchett, of Calhoun, Ala.

BARNESVILLE CADETS TROUNCE G. M. C. FIVE

Barnesville, Ga., January 23.—(Special).—Gordon Institute handed the Georgia Military college quintet a drubbing on the basketball court, the score of 56 to 8. The Barnesville boys scored 23 points before the G. M. C. youngsters counted. The beautiful work of Daniel, at center, and Cox, at forward, made the difference in the game. The Barnesville boys did the best work for the visitors.

GRIFFIN BASKETEERS LOSE TO THE AGOGAS

The Agogo basketball five journeyed to Griffin last night and defeated the team representing the Athletic club of that city by a pretty game by the score of 30 to 21. The feature of the game was the all-round playing of both teams. The score at the end of the first half was 13 to 11 in favor of the Agogos.

Rosenkrantz Suit

For $100,000 Will Be Tried on Merits

That the suit of Mrs. Robt. Rosenkrantz against Captain J. W. English for damages amounting to $100,000 will have to go to the lower courts for trial on its merits is the result of a decision rendered Friday by the court of appeals affirming the judgment of Fulton superior court in refusing to sustain demurrers of lawyers for the defendant.

Under an alleged agreement among stockholders of the Chattahoochee Brick company, Mrs. Rosenkrantz brought suit against Captain English for damages amounting to $100,000. The company was organized in 1915 and Mrs. Rosenkrantz, who died in 1917, was its president. She claimed that an agreement existed whereby her husband was to have acted as vice president until 1917 and that she inherited this position according to terms of the agreement.

After the death of her husband, she was introduced by attorneys representing the company in a position superior court, had been overruled the case was appealed. The court of appeals sustained the lower court in its ruling.

Mrs. Rosenkrantz was represented by John A. Sibley, King & Spalding, D. S. Batchelor. The defense was represented by Brewster, Howell & Heyman and Mark Bolding.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR HOLCOMB FRIDAY

Funeral services for W. C. Holcomb, of Smyrna, switchman on the railroad, who died at his home in Smyrna, Ga., on Thursday morning, both legs being severed from the body, the exact nature of the accident was unknown since there were no eyewitnesses. The general impression is that he fell from the top of a freight car, and that the wheels passed over his body.

He is survived by his wife, a small daughter, Geraldine, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Holcomb.

Help Wanted—Male, Female

STENO-BOOKKEEPERS, CLERKS AND SALESMEN

WHY for your hands and do not think? Don't you know that efficiency is required? Don't you know that you must be able to get a good position if you are trained? We place young people in good paying positions. We teach both college and by mail—fine class in salesmanship at night. Laboratory of live room. Are out for a record. Call Main 888 or write Desk B, Draughton's Business College, Third Floor, 115 FURSTY BLDG. IVY 2840.

RAILWAY mail clerks, stenographers, typists, wanted by government. Examination. Write for plan 300, payment after securing position. C-85117 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
